About Me

Into the wine world, starting with le vendange 2011 à Bordeaux, followed by the 2012 harvest in Nasik, India, and a lifetime of wine-related experience! On a vino adventure, living on vineyards, and working in cellars, learning as much as possible about the wine industry, from the experts in wine making. Follow me on a journey that encompasses la culture, la dégustation, le procès de vinification, wine-related news from around the world, and just about everything else in between.

Ask me anything, Send me something interesting
